Back To School

Students are returning to school for a new year and whether classes are remote, in-person, or a hybrid this fall everyone needs internet access to succeed. To help promote the Emergency Broadband Benefit as a tool for the coming school year, the FCC has added new back to school themed materials to the EBB Outreach Toolkit. New materials include school posters, bookmarks, handouts and Pell Grant and school lunch and breakfast program specific flyers. Additional social media posts and images have also been added. We hope that universities and K-12 schools will use these items to notify their communities about this important program designed to help eligible households get, or stay, connected.

The Emergency Broadband Benefit program allows eligible households to enroll through an approved provider or by visiting GetEmergencyBroadband.org. To learn more about the program visit www.fcc.gov/broadbandbenefit.

Rent reminder:

Don't forget rent is due by the 5th of the month. During the moratorium we were not charging late fees. It has ended so now we will be charging the $15.00 late fee.

Why Recycle

It Saves Energy-The energy required to make products using recycled materials is significantly less than the energy required to make products from raw materials. Consider this, it takes 20X the energy to create an aluminum can from raw materials when compared to recycled. You could create 20 recycled aluminum cans for the same energy cost as one!

Reduces Landfill Space-Landfills are unsightly, smelly, toxic areas as they contain all of the waste generated by residents, commercial organizations and industries in the region. The US Environmental Protection Agency estimates that nearly 75% of all waste that ends up in the landfill is recyclable. By gaining more participation in recycling we can significantly reduce the volume of waste in landfills and the number of landfills needed.

Cease the Grease

Pouring grease, oil or fat down the drain hurts. That’s why you should let it cool, pour it in a disposable container and throw it in the trash.

Fat, grease and oil are a major cause of sewer line blockages. When grease accumulates in our sewer lines, it can cause wastewater back up, resulting in overflow that affects the quality of our water. When you cook hamburger meat please do not drain in the sink. When it cools in the drain line it will eventually cause a stop up. This can really be costly if we have to bring out a plumber to unstop it.

Follow these important guidelines , so you don’t cause a pain in the drain.

Newsletter of the Year 2021

Telephone Numbers

Please contact the office if you get a new phone number. Some times it is easier to reach you with a working number than sending you a notice from the office. Just call Ms. Pat and give her the new number and we can update it in our system and if you have an email address we can email you also.

Household items placed beside the curb.....

The above pictures are not appealing and give the properties and the streets a bad curb appeal. Please, all we ask is that when you have items that need to be discarded to call this number 910-892-2948 and ask when the City will be picking the items up. It is usually Wednesday, but don't put it out by the curb until you have called to make sure it is Wednesday. Thank you.
